For Immediate Release:

The 2019 Dillon Floral Design Show

Bloomsburg, PA - The 2019 Dillon Floral Design Show was held on Sunday September 15. This years' featured floral designer was John Hosek, AIFD, PFCI, CAFA, CF owner of Surroundings Events and Floral in Verona Wisconsin. The show also offered a business segment with Derrick Myers, CPA, CFP, President of Crockett, Myers and Associates in Baltimore, Maryland. The floral designer assistant was Julie Shadeck, owner of House of Flowers in Corning, New York.

The design show was attended by florists from Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey who had a chance to meet with a dozen fresh flower vendors and farms as well as hardgood vendor representatives. Florists also had an opportunity to enter a potted plant design contest with the winner, Pocketful of Posies in Howard, PA, being selected by their peers. Next year's show will be held on Sunday September 20, 2020.

Dillon Floral is a wholesale distributor of floral products and florist supplies located in Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania. Dillon Floral has been growing and wholesaling flowers for five generations since 1875. They are a member of the International Floral Distributors group. They provide service to florists in Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and Maryland.

Derrick Myers, Julie Shadeck and John Hosek