CRITERIA FOR ELIGIBILITY FOR ADMISSION TO THE AMERICAN ACADEMY OF FLORICULTURE OF THE SOCIETY OF AMERICAN FLORISTS

These criteria are the minimum criteria for applicants for admission to the American Academy of Floriculture. Meeting the minimum criteria does not automatically confer membership in AAF or guarantees admission to AAF.

GENERAL CRITERIA

1. The candidate for admission must be a member in good standing of the Society of American Florists for three years or more and must maintain that membership to use the AAF designation.
2. If applicants are owners, principals or partners of a business, they must have a favorable credit rating as evidenced by three letters from trade references. If applicants are employees of a member firm, they must provide two letters of personal reference. Personal reference letters should be from employees from your company.
3. The candidate for admission must be endorsed in writing by two current members of the Academy. Endorsement letters should not be from immediate family members or same company employees. See the list of AAF members on the SAF website.
4. The candidate for admission must have served or worked in the floral industry on a full-time basis a minimum of five years.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Admittance to the American Academy of Floriculture is an honor that is bestowed on those who have not only contributed to their industry, but also to their community. As evidence of a candidate's community service, a candidate should meet three of the twelve criteria listed below.
